

PROFESSIONAL TRUCK
DRIVER OF THE MONTH
MAY 2018
PAUL MCDONALD

ABOUT the Driver

Paul McDonald has been a professional driver for 55 years! He has been a valuable part of the Armour Transportation team for over 36 years.

Paul is a great example of a true professional driver. He is responsible, accountable, safety conscious and friendly.

He is responsible for hauling tanker trailers throughout the Maritime Provinces. Labatt Breweries has recognized Armour Transportation Systems as their "Carrier of the Year". Paul played an integral role in receiving the award from a customer.

Paul is one of Armour's most distinguished professional drivers having earned his 3 Million Mile Award in 2010.

He is one of only 32 drivers at Armour to receive such an honor, and he is currently working towards his next award.

Congratulations Paul!

ABOUT the Company

Armour Transportation Systems

Armour Transportation Systems was founded by Mr. Gordon Armour in the early 1940's, using his truck to haul hay and gravel out of Taylor Village, about 20 miles outside of Moncton, NB.

In 1966, Wesley Armour, President & CEO, joined the company. They had 10 straight trucks and 11 employees.

Today, through strategic alliances with other major carriers, Armour has grown to service all of Canada, the United States, Mexico, and beyond. One of Canada's leading transportation specialists with over 1,900 employees, 26 terminals and more than 4,000 pieces of equipment.
