

PROFESSIONAL TRUCK
DRIVER OF THE MONTH
JULY 2018
JOHN CHAMBERS

ABOUT the Driver

John Chambers has been a professional driver for 16 years, and has been a part of the Armour Transportation team since.

John is certainly a great example of a professional driver, as he is punctual, safety conscious and has a passion for driving.

John goes out of his way daily dealing with customers.

He is kind and proud to be part of the team. He is a true professional who represents what a professional driver is all about. His values and work ethics allow others the opportunity to see how the trucking industry works.

Congratulations John!

ABOUT the Company

Armour Transportation Systems

Armour Transportation Systems was founded by Mr. Gordon Armour in the early 1940's, using his truck to haul hay and gravel out of Taylor Village, about 20 miles outside of Moncton, NB.

In 1966, Wesley Armour, President & CEO, joined the company. They had 10 straight trucks and 11 employees.

Today, through strategic alliances with other major carriers, Armour has grown to service all of Canada, the United States, Mexico, and beyond. One of Canada's leading transportation specialists with over 1,900 employees, 26 terminals and more than 4,000 pieces of equipment.
