Gerald Melanson

ABOUT the Driver

Gerald Melanson has been a professional driver for 18 years, during all of which he has been employed by Armour Transportation Systems.

Gerald is an ambassador for Armour Transportation Systems as well as the trucking industry as a whole. He mentors new hires with a 100% success rate. "Gerald is one of my top guns!" says Phil Hamilton who nominated him for Driver of the Month.

Congratulations Gerald!

ABOUT the Company

Armour Transportation Systems

Armour Transportation Systems was founded by Mr. Gordon Armour in the early 1940's, using his truck to haul hay and gravel out of Taylor Village, about 20 miles outside of Moncton, NB. In 1966, Wesley Armour, President & CEO, joined the company. They had 10 straight trucks and 11 employees.

Today, through strategic alliances with other major carriers, Armour has grown to service all of Canada, the United States, Mexico, and beyond. One of Canada's leading transportation specialists with over 1,900 employees, 26 terminals and more than 4,000 pieces of equipment.
