

2017 Annual General Meeting

Delta Prince Edward, Charlottetown, PE

OCTOBER 4th & 5th, 2017

Announcing Guest Speakers

APTA is proud to announce the confirmed speakers to our conference.

Cassie Campbell

TV Analyst for TSN & CBC's Hockey Night in Canada

As Captain for Canada's National Women's Hockey Team from 2001 to her retirement in 2006, made her the longest serving captain in Canadian hockey history.

She won 21 medals with Canada's National Women's teams, including 17 gold medals and four silvers. She won two Olympic gold medals and is a six time World Champion gold medallist. Cassie is the only captain (male or female), to lead Canada to two Olympic gold medals.

Ryan Hreljac

Founder of Ryan's Well Foundation

At only 25 years-old, Ryan has twice been a guest on Oprah, shared the spotlight with Prince Charles, dined with Prince Edward and improved the lives of more than a million people. As a little boy, Ryan learned that there were children in Africa who were dying because they did not have clean water to drink. He became determined to help and that determination raised the money to dig one well, then another and another.

Now, 17 years later Ryan has brought life enhancing safe water, sanitation, and hygiene education. He received numerous awards including the Order of Ontario, Canadian Meritorious Service Medal, the Top 20-Under-20 Youth Award, and World of Children's Founder Award. He's recognized by UNICEF as a Global Youth Leader & by CNN as a CNN Hero.

Alonzo Bodden

Stand up Comedian

Alonzo's material is "cynically good natured". Well, the older he gets, the less good natured it's gonna be. "What can I say? The stupid out there is wearing the man down."

Bodden, who won Season 3 on NBC's Last Comic Standing, hosted "101 Cars You Must Drive" and "America's Worst Driver". His first big comedy break came when he was on the "New Faces of Comedy" showcase at the Just for Laughs festival in Montreal.

Alonzo has traveled around the world entertaining USO troops from Iraq to Greenland.
